THIS MONTH'S COVER

Listening to music is one of life's most entertaining activities. Listening to music while watching the music being performed live increases our pleasure substantially.

Camp Zama MWR is pleased and proud to again host a two day Music Friendship Festival on 26 and 27 September at Camp Zama.

This popular event starts at 3 pm and ends at 9 pm. Rock, Reggae, Jazz, Top 40, Pop, R&B, Old School, Hip-hop, Rap with live bands, a DJ, and ... you name it, we've got it.

Armed Forces Entertainment and Navy Entertainment has provided three top notch touring acts. Additionally, food stands and vendors booths will be onsite and events will culminate with fireworks each night. Bring yourselves, your families, friends and neighbors and enjoy this wide variety of fun sounds.

See the back cover for the entertainment and shuttle bus schedule.

Reports of domestic violence may be made on a restricted basis only to the following designated personnel: military health care providers, Family Advocacy clinical social workers at Behavioral Health Services at 263-4610, and the Family Advocacy Program Manager (FAPM) at 263-8057. Information provided in restricted reports will not be disclosed automatically to command or law enforcement. Access to medical care, forensic examination, advocacy, intervention and support will be provided. Contact the Victim Advocate at 263-4853 for additional information about domestic violence restricted and unrestricted reporting.

EXCEPTIONAL FAMILY MEMBER PROGRAM, 263-4572

The Camp Zama Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) is a mandatory enrollment program for active duty Soldiers with Family members

SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE PROGRAM

This is a commander's program designed to help prevent sexual assault through increased awareness and training and to provide information and resources if sexual assault occurs. An individual who has been sexually assaulted may report the incident in a restricted or unrestricted manner.

Victim Advocacy is a free service for all personnel in the military community. The victim advocate for Camp Zama is located in Building #402 with Army Community Service. Victims are encouraged to come and speak with a trained Victim Advocate and inquire about available services. The victim advocate works with those who have been a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault.

TO MAKE A CALL:

- Sexual Assault Hotline from a DSN: 882# or 090-9395-8909.
- To make a restricted report, contact a medical provider, chaplain, the Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC) at 263-HELP /4357 or your Unit Victim Advocate.
- To make an unrestricted report, contact the Military Police at 263-3002, the chain of command, or the SARC at 263-HELP /4357 or 090-9395-8909.
- To contact the Victim Advocate call 263-HELP /4357 or 090-9395-8909.

with special needs. It is important for spouses to enroll their Family members to ensure their Family members receive the best possible care at their existing and future duty assignments. If you are currently enrolled in EFMP keep in mind your file must be reviewed every 3 years or upon a change in condition of the Family member, which ever comes first. Soldiers just arriving at Camp Zama and the sponsor of an Exceptional Family Member must in-process with the EFMP Coordinator. Come out and network with other parents when you join the EFMP Parent Support Group which meets every 3rd Tuesday of each month at ACS from noon - 1 pm.

An EFMP workshop on Developmental Milestones will be held on 24 September from 12:30 - 1 pm at ACS. For more information or to register for upcoming workshops contact the ACS EFMP Coordinator at 263-4572.

QBC Quarters Beautification Competition

- The September Quarters Beautification Competition (QBC) is the fifth and final competition for this year, and your last chance to show how proud you are of the exterior of your home. The judging for September will be conducted during the period 1 - 11 September in the Zama, Depot and Sagami-hara Housing Areas with awards for first, second and third place in each of the three areas.
- As a reminder, this is also your last chance to have an opportunity to be considered as the "overall first place winner" in each of three areas at the recognition ceremony to be held at the Music and Theater Workshop Building in conjunction with Zama's Tree Lighting Ceremony on 1 December. You must be a previous winner to qualify for consideration as the overall winner.
- Awards will be presented on 18 September on site at each winner's home.
- For further information concerning this popular community program, please contact your community mayor or phone Army Community Service (ACS) at 263-8087.
